

CURTIS M. LIVELY

Department of Biology, Program Affiliation: Evolution, Ecology & Behavior

Research Area: Ecology and Evolution of Interspecific Interactions

<http://scholar.google.com/citations?user=NjfTEZsAAAAJ&hl=en>

DEGREES

1977 B.S., Arizona State University
1984 Ph.D., University of Arizona

APPOINTMENTS

1984-87 University Grants Committee (New Zealand) Post-Doctoral Fellow at the University of Canterbury
1987-88 National Science Foundation Post-Doctoral Fellow at the University of Canterbury, New Zealand, administered by the University of Arizona
1989 Post-Doctoral Associate in the Center for Theoretical and Applied Genetics,
 Rutgers University, with Prof. R.C. Vrijenhoek
1990-1995 Assistant Professor, Indiana University
1996-2011 Professor, Indiana University
2008-2011 Senior Adjunct Researcher at the New Zealand Institute for Advanced Study
2011-present Distinguished Professor, Indiana University

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

1987 Mercer Award, from the Ecological Society of America
1993 Outstanding Young Faculty Award from Indiana University
1996 Election to FACET (faculty colloquium on excellence in teaching)
1997 Teaching Excellence Recognition Award
1997-01 Jack Gill Fellowship (Dean's Scholar)
1999 Teaching Excellence Recognition Award
2000 Teaching Excellence Recognition Award
2000 Senior Class Award for Teaching Excellence and Dedication to Undergraduates
2002 Senior Class Award for Teaching Excellence and Dedication to Undergraduates
2002 Indiana Univ. Trustees' Award for Outstanding Teaching
2003 Vice President for the Society for the Study of Evolution (SSE)
2004 Fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS)
2007 Honorary Fellow of the Royal Society of New Zealand (HON FRSNZ)
2011 Fellow Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin (Institute for Advanced Study, Berlin)
2011 Indiana Univ. Trustees' Award for Outstanding Teaching
2012-13 Vice President for the American Society of Naturalists (ASN)
2020 Bicentennial Medal, Indiana University
2023 Elected American Academy of Arts and Sciences